

Board of Administration Nominee

Amy Colgan Clark

Region: South (Bishop Keith)

Conference: Wabash Conference

Elder or Lay person: Lay person

Job Title and Employer:

Supervising Deputy Prosecuting Attorney, Monroe County (IN) Government

Church: Bedford, Indiana

Local Church Ministry:

Leads Ladies' Fellowship (women's ministry), Secretary of local BOA, Pastor's Cabinet, delegate/reserve delegate to annual conference. Bible quiz leader. Adult Sunday School teacher.

Conference and/or General Church Ministry:

Conference Ministerial Appointments Committee, Ministerial Education and Guidance Board, and FMCUSA BOA, past Conference Bible Quiz director, past Conference BOA.

Community Ministry:

Actively support "Between the Crowd, Inc.," a 501(c)(3) not-for profit ministry to teenagers, Lawrence County Women Care; Work with Centerstone and their POPS (Providing Opportunities for Parental Success) program in Bloomington, IN.

Additional Qualifications:

Amy has been an active and crucial member of the FMCUSA BOA. Her experience and knowledge as a lawyer has served the national church well. She is able to help teams think through complex issues while keeping Kingdom goals in mind. She is faithfully active in her local church and puts her all in any ministry in which she serves. Her upbeat spirit and keen mind have been of valuable service to the local church, local conference and the FMCUSA.